HOW TO KILL A SPORTSMAN'S CLUB

Don't attend meetings... if you do, be sure to come late.

Always find fault with the officers and members.

Never accept any office. It is much easier to criticize than to do things.

If asked by the chairman for your opinion, tell him you have nothing to say.

After the meeting remember to tell everyone else what you could have said.

Do only what is absolutely necessary. When others willingly and unselfishly help the club, be sure to put up a howl that the club is run by a clique.

Never bring guests to the club or try for new members, but be sure to moan that the club is dying.

Insist that only what was done in the past is correct. Object to all changes.

The night after a meeting tell everyone what things ought to be done, but refuse to take an active part in the club or assume any responsibilities.
